If you enroll in the Services using a credit card, you certify to us that you are at least 18 years of age and that you are the cardholder of the credit card.

Unless you enroll as part of a trial offer, your obligation to pay for the Service begins on the date of your enrollment in the Service - not the date of your first use of the Service. If made available, a trial offer, or free access periods (any of which constitute a "Trial") to use the Service will also begin on the date of your enrollment in the Trial for the Service, and not the date of your first use of it. After your Trial or initial enrollment period, the monthly membership fee as outlined in your enrollment will be billed by T.I.B. TIB reserves the right to change the price charged for the Services after the initial enrollment period and upon notice, via e-mail, to you.

You must cancel prior to your monthly renewal date to avoid continued charges. You may cancel your account for the Service during any Trial period without charge. However, we do not prorate any fees, charges, or applicable taxes associated with the Service upon any termination or cancellation and do not refund any such amounts for any term already charged. You may cancel your account for the Service by calling our customer service department at (844) 890-2567.

When a Trial is cancelled prior to its termination, your account is immediately terminated. However, other than your payment obligations, obligations, as otherwise specified in this Agreement, shall continue indefinitely.
